Statement of Originality

I hereby declare that I have written the Master's thesis independently and have not used any sources or aids other than those indicated and that I have identified as such any thoughts taken directly or indirectly from outside sources.

I have not yet submitted the thesis to any other examination office in the same or a comparable form. It has not yet been published.

Eidesstattliche Erklärung

Hiermit erkläre ich, dass ich die Masterarbeit selbstständig verfasst und keine anderen als die angegebenen Quellen und Hilfsmittel benutzt und die aus fremden Quellen direkt oder indirekt übernommenen Gedanken als solche kenntlich gemacht habe.

Die Arbeit habe ich bisher keinem anderen Prüfungsamt in gleicher oder vergleichbarer Form vorgelegt. Sie wurde bisher nicht veröffentlicht.

Contents

1	Introduction	1
2	Collection of Material	2
3	Reflection	3

1 Introduction

Provide an overview of the project. This section should include:

- The main objectives of the project
- A rough timeline or schedule of the work
- A description of how tasks were divided among group members (if applicable)
- A brief outline of what the portfolio contains

This section should be approximately one page long.

2 Collection of Material

This chapter should list all materials gathered and created during the semester, such as:

- Slides and presentations
- Datasets
- Scripts or code
- Questionnaires, surveys, or other relevant documents

You may upload these materials to Seafile or another platform and include the corresponding links here.

3 Reflection

This section offers a more detailed and personal reflection on the project work. Consider addressing the following:

- Your personal tasks and contribution
- Progress and milestones achieved
- Results and outcomes
- Challenges encountered and how they were addressed
- Lessons learned and perspectives for future work

This part can take a more personal tone and should be about two pages long.
